IPMA Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct

We recognise that our projects, programmes and project portfolios, affect people, society and the natural environment in various ways, both locally and globally.....

We believe that by committing to acting ethically we will make our projects, programmes and project portfolios better and that this will serve to further our profession.....

The IPMA Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct lays out the principles and minimum duties we hold towards the project, programme or project portfolio owner, teams, stakeholders, society and natural environment.
